Profiles

This couple is coping with severe medical conditions. Morris is disabled and struggles with bipolar schizophrenia. Cynthia is his primary caregiver. She also works part-time as a nursing assistance while undergoing chemotherapy for bladder cancer. You can make a difference by remembering them this holiday season with your gifts of basic clothing and household items. (SYC 10389)

This hardworking single mom cares for her three young children on a meager fixed income. You can lend a helping hand to this family with your gifts of clothing, household items and toys. (SYC 10533)

Two energetic grandsons are the center of Deshone’s life. She provides the best home she can on a poverty-level income. Your gifts of clothes, toys and movies will lift their spirits this December. (SYC 10403)

It takes a very special kind of 88 year-old woman to assume the role of sole caregiver for a two-year old grandson. Because her income is very limited, Louise will not be able to afford to provide him with any new clothes or toddler toys this holiday. Will you provide those gifts? (SYC 10482)

A 96 year-old couple and their 74 year-old caregiver live together as a family. They are supportive of each other and very frugal with their limited income, but there is never enough for anything beyond the bare necessities each month. Your holiday gifts of simple clothing items, adult diapers and grocery store cards will mean so much to them. (SYC 10497)

This mom is making a new life with her two small sons after surviving domestic violence. She needs gifts of basic household items and clothes. Will you help her make a fresh start? (SYC 10501)

Dazya is a teen who recently aged out of foster care. She is now learning to live on her own, but struggles to make ends meet while she is in school and working part-time. A gift card for clothing and groceries will make her first holiday on her own just a little more cheerful. (SYC #10792)

Damages from the early fall storms have stretched this disabled senior citizen’s very limited income to the breaking point. Your holiday gifts of bedding, towels, slippers and coffee mugs will help her replace some of what she has lost. (SYC #10771)

Peggy suffers from severe chronic medical conditions and is in need of a knee replacement. Despite her ailments, she always finds a way to help others who live in her apartment building. You can let Peggy know that you care with your holiday gifts of clothes and towels in her favorite colors. (SYC #10739)